Dixon Road will also open for a half day before the event and a few hours the following day for you to set up and pack down.

What's not included

- There is no catering included. Although we work closely with Mesa Catering and would be happy to organise this for you for a fee. Mesa Catering offers a choice between delicious pies from Pieminister. Or delightful indian food from Thali (both local independent businesses)

- We are not a licensed venue so you cannot hold your legal ceremony here.
- Crockery and Cutlery will need to be hired. We can organise this for a fee also.
- And any other suppliers such as florist, DJ photographer etc. will need to be hired. We have worked with some amazing local professionals and have a list of people we would recommend. We would be happy to share this with you if you need it.
